

Providing community services to
South Australians since 1942.

We deliver effective and flexible community services to South Australians of all ages, religions, ethnicities, cultures, abilities, gender identities and sexual orientations.

We respond with skill, compassion and tenacity to each of the more than 20,000 South Australians we support annually in these areas:

- Aboriginal Services
- Alcohol and Other Drugs
- Connection to Community
- Counselling and Mediation
- Disability
- Domestic Violence
- Education and Training
- Employee Assistance
- Foster Care
- Homelessness
- Mental Health
- Parenting
